

Announcements for Wednesday, October 26

Anchor #1: Good morning Interboro and welcome to the Wednesday edition of KScope. I'm _____.

Anchor #2: And I'm _____ with your morning announcements.

Anchor #1: 11th and 12th graders... Rosemont College is coming to visit! Sign up on Family Connection/Naviance if you would like to meet with a representative.

Anchor #2: There will be a student council mtg. in the auditorium at 9 a.m. today. Please make sure you have your 9th period teacher's permission to attend.

Anchor #1: Permission slips and money for the French trip to the Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Rodin Museum are due on Friday, October 28. Bonne journée.

Anchor #2: There will be a Junior Class Congress meeting on Wednesday, November 2nd at 2:30 in room 121. Please make every effort to attend.

Anchor #1: Friday's spirit day is Black and Gold. Wear Black and gold and you could win ten dollars!

Anchor #2: Listen up swimmers! Make sure you stop by room 100 to see Mr. Jackson for a schedule.

Anchor #1: Let's check in with Hailey and Richie for our birthdays and fact of the day.

Anchor#1: A very happy birthday to Andrew Kitchen, Tyler Longergan, Luke Escher, Brielle Jacobs. We hope you have a great day!

Fact of the Day: hi, im richie with the fact of the day

What mammal has the most teeth?

On land the mammal with the most teeth is the Giant Armadillo, which can have as many as 100 teeth in its jaws. In the oceans the Spinner Dolphin can have as many as 252 teeth in its long thin jaws.

Anchor #2: That's all of the announcements we have for today.

Anchor #1: Have a great day Interboro.